

1 Delegate Pullen.

2 DELEGATE PULLEN: Mr. Chairman, I have had fifty
3 years of experience with eighteen year olds and from the
4 beginning I was about eighteen or nineteen myself. I
5 think I taught three generations and I say each generation
6 is better than the other.

7 Maryland is one of the most civilized spots
8 in the world, and in so splendid a place so many of us
9 have come here -- I would like all of those outlanders
10 born outside the State of Maryland to please hold up their
11 hand. Don't let's be ashamed of it.

12 I don't think all of them are responding, Mr.
13 Chairman.

14 We came here --

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Pullen, the Chair
16 suggests possibly they are not of voting age.

17 DELEGATE PULLEN: If you will give me a minute,
18 please, Mr. Chairman, in all seriousness, let's look at
19 this matter of voting suffrage.

20 In Maryland in 1800 Catholics could not vote.
21 Now, they vote, and I suspect there are a few on this floor.
